

The Grange School, Daventry

Well done to our Year 6 children, who have just completed their final SATs papers.

Please make sure you have checked the dates on this newsletter. You should also have received notification of which team your child / children is in for our Jubilee Sports Days. Please make sure you attend on the right afternoon! We will not be holding another Sports Day at the end of term, so please try to come along and support your child. We're looking forward to welcoming you all on site.

WEST NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COUNCIL CHANGE THEIR MINDS...!

We are pleased to let you know that West Northamptonshire Council have changed their minds and Free School Meal vouchers will indeed be sent for the May half term.

This announcement comes after the Government funding for Free School Meals during the pandemic came to an end, but West Northamptonshire Council have been able to tap into the Household Support Fund to pay for the vouchers.

Vouchers will be sent to us and we will send them to you as soon as we receive them.

Chris Heaton-Harris MP's

Platinum Photography Competition

To celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee, I am inviting all Primary School pupils in the constituency to take part in a photography competition titled "What my community means to me"

Who can enter: All primary school aged children in the Daventry Constituency

Closing date: Sunday 22nd May 2022

Email to: chris.heatonharris.mp@parliament.uk

The winning entry will have their photo printed on a card and sent to the the Queen. Please include in the email child's name, age, school and tell me about your chosen photo.

The Queen is a keen photographer snapping pictures throughout the years of her visits, family and pets.

This is a great opportunity to explore your local area, try your hand at photography and capture your favourite places.

Good luck!
