

For many of our Year 6 pupils, today is their final day in school. We wish them - and those that will remain with us until the end of term proper - every happiness and success for the future. They have been amazing and we will miss them all enormously. However, we know that they are equipped with the skills they need to tackle this next step in their lives. Be fabulous!

The Full Stop Day

Last six hours of primary school Goodbye is getting near
The sums and sentences all done
The full stop day is here

Last five hours of primary school
Where everything's before The aims and games and crazes no one's crazy for no more

Last four hours of primary school Surrounded by a class who'll scatter soon and not return when summer's days have passed

Last three hours of primary school
One final lunchtime play
Instead of chasing friends we try to chase and catch the day

Last two hours of primary school
The clock hands blur and skid Signing shirts, remembering the coolest things we did

Last one hour of primary school where teachers understood And helped me see I could achieve for they believed I could

Last half hour of primary school
The assembly we all dread
We cannot sing - us Year Six kings
The crown slips from our heads

Last ever second of primary school
The full stop rings in our ears
But a thousand chapters left to write
We must vacate our childhood site
For time moves on and time is right -
To leave our wonder years
